

AISR Sunday School - Book 3

Breakers of Salah - Quiz

Name: _____ Date: _____

Section A - Multiple Choice

1. Which action breaks Salah even if it happens by accident?

- A. Eating or drinking
- B. Blinking
- C. Breathing
- D. Standing quietly

2. What happens if a person talks during Salah, even a little?

- A. Nothing happens
- B. The Salah breaks
- C. The Salah becomes longer
- D. Only wudu breaks

3. What should you NOT say during Salah when someone sneezes?

- A. Subhana Rabbiyal Azim
- B. Yarhamukallah
- C. Allahu Akbar
- D. Ameen

4. Which kind of greeting breaks Salah?

- A. Giving or replying to salam
- B. Smiling silently
- C. Looking at the floor
- D. Standing straight

5. What does “amal kathir” mean in this lesson?

- A. Reciting a long surah
- B. A large action that makes a watcher think you are not praying
- C. Making wudu carefully
- D. Standing for a long time

6. Which sound can break Salah according to the lesson?

- A. Quiet breathing
- B. Loud laughter
- C. A silent smile
- D. A cough you cannot control

7. Which necessary action must not be missed in Salah?

- A. Ruku or sajdah
- B. Closing your eyes
- C. Wearing a watch
- D. Standing on a carpet

8. What happens if a person turns the chest away from the qiblah during Salah?

- A. The Salah breaks
- B. The Salah becomes sunnah
- C. Nothing changes
- D. Only the reward doubles

Section B - Fill in the Blank

9. Things that break wudu also break _____.

10. To greet or reply to a person with _____ during prayer breaks Salah.

11. A large action that makes a watcher think you are not praying is called _____.

12. A necessary action such as ruku or _____ must not be missed.

13. Turning the _____ away from the qiblah breaks Salah.

AISR Sunday School - Book 3

Breakers of Salah - Quiz - Answer Key

Section A - Multiple Choice

1. Which action breaks Salah even if it happens by accident?

- A. Eating or drinking
- B. Blinking
- C. Breathing
- D. Standing quietly

Answer: A. Eating or drinking

2. What happens if a person talks during Salah, even a little?

- A. Nothing happens
- B. The Salah breaks
- C. The Salah becomes longer
- D. Only wudu breaks

Answer: B. The Salah breaks

3. What should you NOT say during Salah when someone sneezes?

- A. Subhana Rabbiyal Azim
- B. Yarhamukallah
- C. Allahu Akbar
- D. Ameen

Answer: B. Yarhamukallah

4. Which kind of greeting breaks Salah?

- A. Giving or replying to salam
- B. Smiling silently
- C. Looking at the floor
- D. Standing straight

Answer: A. Giving or replying to salam

5. What does “amal kathir” mean in this lesson?

- A. Reciting a long surah
- B. A large action that makes a watcher think you are not praying
- C. Making wudu carefully
- D. Standing for a long time

Answer: B. A large action that makes a watcher think you are not praying

6. Which sound can break Salah according to the lesson?

- A. Quiet breathing
- B. Loud laughter
- C. A silent smile
- D. A cough you cannot control

Answer: B. Loud laughter

7. Which necessary action must not be missed in Salah?

- A. Ruku or sajdah
- B. Closing your eyes
- C. Wearing a watch
- D. Standing on a carpet

Answer: A. Ruku or sajdah

8. What happens if a person turns the chest away from the qiblah during Salah?

- A. The Salah breaks
- B. The Salah becomes sunnah
- C. Nothing changes
- D. Only the reward doubles

Answer: A. The Salah breaks

Section B - Fill in the Blank

9. Things that break wudu also break _____.

Answer: Salah

10. To greet or reply to a person with _____ during prayer breaks Salah.

Answer: salam

11. A large action that makes a watcher think you are not praying is called _____.

Answer: amal kathir

12. A necessary action such as ruku or _____ must not be missed.

Answer: sajdah

13. Turning the _____ away from the qiblah breaks Salah.

Answer: chest